

BMS ENVIRONMENTALS SHE POLICY

- Providing system processes that will allow for continuous identification of SHE hazards from the company's business operations & employee activities
- Comply with all legal requirements
- The assessment of risks posed by identified hazards & implementation of actions
- To prevent employees & the plant from harm & injuries in the workplace as well as adverse impact to the environment
- Implementing systems of work that will allow for identification of SHE legislation applicable to the business operations and ensuring compliance thereto
- Provision of skilled and competent workforce that will ensure that the clients requirements are adhered to and provided at all times and relevant SHE precautions are implemented in providing services
- Reviewing implemented systems and process on scheduled and regular basis for the continuous improvement, especially where such initiatives will prove beneficial to preventing, SHE RISKS.